

The Renaissance of Community: Transforming Cities and Suburbs into Walkable Places

Participate in a spirited discussion on how we can rebuild a sense of community by changing our vision and our zoning codes to make walkable places possible again. Led by former Miami Mayor Manny Diaz (author of Miami Transformed: Rebuilding America One Neighborhood, One City at a Time), Miramar Mayor Wayne Messam, Fort Lauderdale City Commissioner Bruce Roberts and new urban developer Tim Hernandez, learn about what is working and what is preventing the reestablishment of walkable communities in South Florida.

Thursday, April 28, 2016
8:00 am—11:30 am
Oak Ridge Auditorium Hall
At Tree Tops Park
3900 SW 100th Avenue
Davie, FL 33328

Admission:
(Breakfast Included)
 $50 SGP Members
 $75 Non-Members
 Students—Free

RSVP—Space is limited. To register for the event, click the Register Now! Button.

REGISTER NOW!
WWW.SMARTGROWTHPARTNERSHIP.ORG

2 AICP Credits
Applied For

Manny Diaz — As the former Mayor of the City of Miami, Mr. Diaz was recognized for completely transforming the City of Miami, and for many nationally recognized innovative programs in the areas of urban design, sustainability and green initiatives, education, infrastructure investment, affordable housing, law enforcement, poverty and homelessness, and arts and culture.

Mayor Wayne Messam — CGC, LEED AP, is a licensed general contractor and a LEED accredited professional. His company, Messam Construction, is currently building and managing some exciting “green” construction projects in America. He became Mayor of Miramar in March of 2015.

Commissioner Bruce Roberts — serves as Commissioner for the City of Fort Lauderdale since 2009. Prior to this he was the Chief of Police for the City. He currently serves on the Broward County MPO, the Downtown Fort Lauderdale Transportation Management Association and the Florida League of Cities.

Tim Hernandez — AICP, Principal of New Urban Communities, is a builder/developer focused on infill, redevelopment and traditional neighborhood development in South Florida. Prior to founding New Urban Communities, he spent 16 years with Pulte Home Corporation in Illinois and South Florida as Director and Vice President in marketing.

Samuel E. Poole III — Sam Poole is a Partner at Berger Singerman. He has extensive experience in planning and zoning in the development and redevelopment of Florida's cities. He has over 25 years of experience advising clients on conventional and new urbanism land development issues in Florida.

SPONSORS

 BERGER SINGERMAN

In-Kind Sponsors

