THE HOME OF
A. QUINN JONES, SR.
EDUCATOR

A. QUINN JONES, SR. (1894-1978) was a prominent educator and community leader. He served as the principal of the A. M. Jones School for many years and was instrumental in the development of the school. He was also a member of the NAACP and a leader in the civil rights movement. The house was built in 1925 and is a fine example of early 20th-century architecture.
