

VISION : NEW CIVIC CENTER AT LEE WENNER PARK

The community is interested in the possibility of locating a new Civic Center at Lee Wenner Park to gather and celebrate the waterfront in a more proximate manner than is currently possible. Further, locating this type of community use would diversify the function of the park to support a wider array of boating, recreation, and community activities – making the park more relevant, safe and useful for all the residents of Cocoa.

