On behalf of the Cultural Council of Palm Beach County, I would like to offer our agency's support for the Dia De Los Muertos Festival in Lake Worth Beach, FL. The Day of the Dead event strongly demonstrates public value for arts and culture in our community and promotes a sense of place. This event demonstrates extraordinary value to this community by uniting the entire neighborhood to create an interactive art experience.

The Cultural Council offers support to this event as one of many proud sponsors. We understand the importance of community-wide events that add cultural vitality and neighborhood unity to Lake Worth Beach. We appreciate the efforts of the organization helping to strengthen the local community by fostering creativity and encouraging the celebration of life through the arts. We are looking forward to this year's Dia De Los Muertos Festival.

Sincerely,

Dave Lawrence
